1. Interruptions in the stay that are due to a health emergency situation caused by COVID-19 shall be considered as "interruption due to force majeure", so that the amount granted shall cover the entire period allocated for the enjoyment of the stay.

2. Provided that they are duly justified by the person concerned, situations of delayed arrival or interruption of the period of stay due to the occurrence of any of the following circumstances shall be admissible:

a) Absences for personal or professional reasons, such as participation in tribunals or selection commissions for public employees, when such participation cannot be verified remotely; travel for research projects in which the person concerned is a researcher or principal investigator; death of a relative up to the second degree of consanguinity or affinity; accident or serious illness occurring to a relative within the degrees indicated in the preceding case, and other circumstances, at the justified discretion of the management committee, which entail the unavoidable need for physical presence in a place other than the place of stay or the impossibility of physical presence at the destination.

b) Situations of temporary incapacity, risk during pregnancy, maternity or paternity, adoption or fostering and risk during breastfeeding.

3. In all the cases mentioned in paragraph 2, it will be necessary for the person concerned to obtain authorisation from the University of Murcia, for which purpose it will be necessary to submit a previous application addressed to the Vice-Rectorate for Research and Internationalisation of the University of Murcia, together with the documents accrediting the incident alleged as a cause of delay in the arrival at the destination or of interruption of the stay. The presentation of such an application will be verified through the Electronic Registry of the University of Murcia, by means of a basic application form, without prejudice to the possibility of sending it simultaneously with the e-mail established for this modality.

4. The situations of delay in joining or interruption of the stay provided for in this base may not be authorised when this would mean exceeding the final end date of the stays (31 December 2024) or thirty per cent (30%) of the duration of the stay, although the latter percentage limit shall not be applicable in the cases of paragraph 2(b).

5. The interruption of the stay for any reason other than those indicated in paragraph 2 may be authorised, upon application under the terms of paragraph 3, when duly justified, but shall entail, as appropriate, the suspension of the employment contract for the duration of its duration or the suspension of the accrual of the grant and of the mobility bonus.

Incompatibilities.

1. The amounts granted as grant shall be incompatible with the receipt of other grants or income, from public or private entities, intended for the same purpose.
2. Employment contracts signed on the basis of this call for proposals shall provide for a full-time employment regime which shall be incompatible with any other legal relationship for self-employed or employed services, without prejudice to the possibility of authorising the compatibility of certain activities in accordance with the legislation on incompatibilities of public sector staff.

Principles to be respected by projects and activities involving beneficiaries.

The projects and activities in which the beneficiaries of this call participate must comply with international principles and current regulations on bioethics, animal experimentation, biosafety, biosecurity, environmental protection, natural heritage and biodiversity and data protection.

Processing of personal data.

1. Payment and justification of grant for relocation expenses.

1. The payment of the subsidy granted for relocation expenses shall be made together with the first monthly payment after arrival at the destination establishment.
2. The grant for relocation expenses shall not require specific justification but shall be verified on presentation of the document accrediting incorporation into the centre of assignment.

Grant monitoring.

1. All beneficiaries of this call, whether in the form of grant or in the form of an employment contract, are subject to the control and monitoring actions that the management committee agrees to carry out in order to verify the correct execution of the action granted.

2. Without prejudice to the provisions of the other bases of this chapter, total or partial non-fulfilment of the requirements, conditions and obligations set out in this resolution and in the regulatory bases, as well as those provided for in the award resolution or in any legal regulations that may be applicable, may give rise, after weighing up its relevance or seriousness, to the opening of the appropriate proceedings depending on the legal nature of the promotional action.

3. In all cases, the following weighted criteria shall be considered for the grading of possible non-compliances:

a) Total and manifest non-fulfilment of the objectives for which the grant was awarded or the employment contract was signed, determined in a contradictory manner and through the administrative and scientific-technical monitoring and control mechanisms, may constitute grounds for total reimbursement of the grant and, where appropriate, loss of the right to payment of the amounts pending receipt, or as a cause for contractual termination for reasons attributable to the contracted person, with the financial consequences envisaged in the employment contract, the scope of which shall be equivalent to the consequences legally envisaged for cases of grants.

b) Partial non-fulfilment of objectives or failure to carry out specific activities to the best of one's ability, determined in the same way as indicated in point a), may entail the same consequences, although limited to a scope proportionate to the relevance of the offence committed.

c) Failure to comply with the obligations linked to the dissemination of the activity granted, under the terms of Article 31.3 of the Regulations of Law 38/2003, of 17 November, shall be cause for partial reimbursement of the amount associated with sgrant non-compliance. Employment contracts shall incorporate similar provisions by means of clauses that foresee the appropriate eventualities and their consequences.

Emergency and procedural deadlines.

1. The deadlines foreseen in this call for applications will be calculated by working days, which implies excluding Saturdays, Sundays and days that are declared non-working days in the municipality of Murcia by virtue of a resolution of the General Administration of the Autonomous Community of the Region of Murcia.

2. For the purposes of Article 33 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, the application of the urgent procedure is declared, based on the circumstance that the final decision must be published no later than 30 November 2021 and given that only five months remain until that date, including those corresponding to the summer period.
