WHITE boxes mean LECTURE.

GREY boxes mean PRACTICAL CLASSES, usually each class is split into two sections to reduce the number of students per class so you can work properly. This usually happens since the beginning and the standard rule is: surnames starting from A to L go to Group A and those starting from M to Z go to Group B. Anyway, if you really need to attend to a specific group, just tell your professor.

HOW TO BUILD YOUR HORARIO

FIRST: make a list with your subjects, write down which year they correspond to and if they are from the bilingual group.

SECOND: select those from the bilingual group, check the schedule on the web site and write down the class hours.

Bilingual group hours are fixed, they should be your starting point.

Remember: you can find schedules:
www.um.es/fee

Click Estudios: Grado: ADE

Click horarios y exámenes

Click Grupo Bilingüe

THIRD: select those subjects that are taught in spanish and complement your schedule choosing the group that best fits you. You can choose as many different groups as you need.
