A top-down photograph of a woman with blonde hair, wearing a black tank top and black pants, sitting on a wooden floor. She has her head buried in her arms, suggesting a state of distress or sadness. The floor is made of light-colored wooden planks. In the top left corner, there is a piece of white fabric with a blue floral pattern. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, open wooden box containing various items, possibly a jewelry box or a small storage container.
